
Japan - One Year Later

Posted by: Misti McHatton

on Aug 23, 2019

Tagged in: ReadyChristian, Natural Disasters, Disaster Volunteers, Disaster Preparedness, Community Response, Christian Volunteers, care

Sunday not only marks Daylight Savings but it is also the one year anniversary of the most recent Earthquake/Tsunami to ravage Japan. That event caused the deaths of over 19,000 people with many thousands still unaccounted for. Now, a year later, hope is beginning to shine in that nation as people, businesses and communities are recovering and being rebuilt.

Here are links to a few updates that we have received:

- Restoring Hope to Tsunami Ravaged Japan
- Jesus.net Japan Launches Outreach to Bring Hope to Nation Still Hurting from March 2011 Disaster
- Somebody Cares Update
- Salvation Army Update
- Operation Blessing – a series of photos that show devastation and response
- Videos from the event and immediate devastation
- Profiles of three people who survived the earthquake and tsunami and where they are today

Being prepared is the first step to a successful recovery. It is important to remember that who you are prior to finding yourself in a crisis is who you will be during a crisis. Take a few minutes and download our free ReadyChristian Training and take steps to prepare yourself, your family and your community to be resilient in times of crisis.

CEN also wishes to extend a huge THANK YOU to all of our partners who are on the ground responding and helping Japan recover from this disaster, and who also are responding to countless disasters and recovery efforts around the globe. Recovery is often the best opportunity for the Christian community to be the most effective in helping and sharing the hope of Christ within to bring hope in times of crisis and devastation.

Here are some before and after images:

host. store. share.
photobucket

