Churches from around the nation have been involved with prayer-care-share efforts related to the tragedies of September 11, 2001. On this 6th anniversary, many Christians gathered in New York to again pray. Read how some of the recovery efforts have impacted the victims, and how churches have even started. Continue to pray for God's work within the hearts of those affected by 9/11. May God draw people unto Himself, and may He strengthen the belief of those whose faith has been stretched.
